

B-Boy Lilou

Two-time Red Bull BC One World Champion Lilou has built a formidable reputation as one of breaking's most uncompromising and popular characters. With a unique dance style and an engaging stage presence, Lilou perfectly combines a new style of using flexible moves with classic footwork and power moves. For Lilou, the most important asset of a b-boy is determination – not only in battles, but in every day practice and lifestyle. In addition to his success on the international battle circuit, he also joined Madonna as a dancer on her MDNA tour.

When it comes to battle strategies, he explains: "Just like in kung fu, you have to anticipate the move your opponent is going to come out with and you'd better have an answer to that. You need to learn new moves and combinations and develop your style all the time if you want to be a winner."
